BIENNIAL SESSIONS.

Standemeyer.

Madison, February 14.—The biennial sessions question which was to have been argued to-day, has again been postpone d The matter in pursuance of the announcement made some time ago, came up in the supreme court this morning. Seuator Hudd and Attorney General Frisby had made elaborate preparations to argue, and had neither of them anticipated any opposition from that portion of Madison's citizens who had some time ago engaged Hon. W. E. Carter to argue on the constitutionality of the amendments. When the case was called this morning, Colonel consented; hearing of the arguments was postponed.

At'orney General and Senator Hudd both

THIEVES.

KENOSHA, Wis., Feb. 14.-Sunday night burglars entered the dwelling of Mr. Hanks, a rope-maker, who lives about a half mile south of this city. Mr. Hanks paid over $3.80 to bis unwelcome visitors, which was all he possesed; but the smallness of the disbursement caused dissatisfaction, and the burglars tested the rope-makers' wares by suspending the manufacturer of the same by the neck. When the nearly lifeless form of Mr. Hanks was lowered to the floor there was no disclosure, and search of the

SOTELDO.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14-District Attorney Corkhill, to whom the testimony of the coroner in the Soteldo case was submitted, to-day, says the facts will justify a verdict of murder, but he does not think that a jury would convict of murder. It will go to the grand jury soon. The funeral of Soteldo will take place tomorrow. General Boynton has prepared resolutions expressive of fraternal regard for the deceased.

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says: "In by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at In the Senate a bill was introduced one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to Lamb the City Hospital. While there the doc- store ter. REMARKABLE THIEF.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 13-The particulars of a very remarkable case of boxes. horse stealing were made public here this afternoon, On the 6th of January Lieutenant Vandever, of the Police force, arrested Alexander Arnold in this city subsequently proved to be the property of men named Russell and Hughes, of Decatur, Ill. When he found he was sure to be convicted, Arnold confessed to the officer that he had been pardoned out the Illinois State prison about two years ago, having served eighteen months of an eighteen-year sentence. During the last year he says he had stolen thirtyfour horses single hand, and in no case had he been caught, He informed the officer of all of his operations as far as he could remember. On this information the officers recovered fifteen of the stolen animals. The animals were found scattered over all the State of Illinois and part of Indiana. The matter was kept very quiet until the officers recovered all the animals it was possible to recover, and nothing was said of it until today. Arrold is about 35 years old. heavy set, with light complexion and clear blue eys; was pardoned from the Illinois Penitentiary by Governor Cullom on the ground of insanity. He says he is an Englishman and was born at sea.

A MISSING MAIDEN.

Detroit, Feb. 14.-Miss Jessie Blood, 18 years old, the daughter of F. H. Blood of St. Clair, has disappeared under circumstances that lead to the belief that she has committed suicide. She retired early Sunday night, giving no sign of any trouble whatever, except that she was slightly indisposed, for which she took a dose of medicine. Monday morning it was discovered that she had left her room during the night. Her clothing was found in it, and a note to her father, was also found, stating that she was too unhappy to live and asked him not to mourn her loss, as she had gone forever. Tracks were found leading to the river near the house, and it is feared she jumped in. No reason whatever is known for the committal of such an act, as she was an intelligent, prepossessing young lady, much beloved by all her friends. No breath of suspicion is attached to her. Her brother died suddenly three years ago from an overdose of

My practice, not one of experiment, but tounded on the laws of Nature, with years of experience and evidence to sustain it, does not tear down, make sick to make well; no harsh treatment, no trifling, no flattering. We know the cause and the remedy needed; no guess work, but knowledge gained by years of experience in the treatment of Chronic Diseases exclusively; no encouragement without a prospect. Candie not to know everything or cure everybody, but do lay claim to reason and common sense. We invite the sick, no matter what their ailment, to call and investigate before they abandon hope, make interrogations and decide for yourselves; it will cost nothin; as consultation is free. Vis

Piles! Piles! Piles! ASure Cure Found at Last, No One Need Suffer!

A sure Cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William, (an Indian remedy.) called Dr. William's Indian Constitution of the C Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes, after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching. (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for Piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing

UNDER OATH.

HAVE been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s Psoriasis, and others Leprosy, commencing on my scalp, and, in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skillful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago thi winter it covered my entire person in form of dry scales. For the last three years I have bee unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there could be nearly a dustpanful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of the minter part of ter part of the winter my skin commenced crackter part of the winter myskin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit, and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One Dr. —— treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I carnestly prayed to die, Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs, feet badly swoolen, toe nails came off, finger nails dead and hard as bone, hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. Oh, my God! how dry and lifeless as old straw. Oh, my God! now

I did suffer!

Rock County and Tobacco Raising. Mr. D. F. The Camp Fire. The W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, Grand Army of the Republic have nearly completed their arrangements for the camp fire which is to be held in the Armory of the Bower City Rifles on Friday evening of this week. The "Camp Fire" is to be a reunion of old soldiers of Southern Wisconsin, and especially of Rock county and their families whether they have received an invitation or not. It must be obvious to all that every body is not invited, for there is no room in the city large enough to contain even what few people there are in Rock county, alone saying nothing about some that will be here from adjoining counties. It is an affair for old soldiers and their families, and not for the general public. The committee who have the arrangement in charge, wish every soldier to understand that he is invited to be present, and those who put in an appearance will be made welcome. An appropriate programme of exercises is being arranged, consisting of speeches, songs and stories of the late "unpleasantness," all of which will be announced in due time. A Lively Business.

We note with pride, the advance in the music trade of this city. On the 19th of last August Mr. W. W. Kimball, of Chicago, sent his present agent to Janesville, with instructions to take in the situation and shape his course accordingly. Mr. Bryant being a man of some years and an extensive experience in the music trade, proceeded to place his business here upon a business footing. The result was, from August 19th to January 1, he sold for his house in Janesville, $12,000 worth of goods. As to the merits of his instruments he refers to such persons as Prof. Titcomb, Prof. Hart, Miss Helen R. Porter, and Miss Julie C. Wilson, who represent the musical talent in the way of teaching in Janesville; also Professor Williams of Milton college, all of whom give their unqualified testimonials as to the merits of these goods, and all of whom are using them. In addition to these there are such men as John R. Bennett, Frank Wood, John Bauman, Charles Church, and numerous others to whom he has

is in this city, is now to the front. She is fast gaining a national reputation, and in a very few years she will have no superior as a female dramatic reader. We have just received from Miss Guernsey's own hands, a copy of "The Guernsev-Listemann Combination of Boston," for the season of 1882. In this strong combination, Miss Guernsey is the dramatic artist, giving her impersonations from literature. The Bernhard Listemann Concert Company, which Miss Guernsey is prominently connected, is composed of the best soloists from Theodore Thomas' Orchestra, from the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, and from the Boston Philharmonic Club, and forms one of the finest combinations of instrumental soloists in America.

The red-lined programme which Miss Guernsey kindly sends us, contains 20 pages, and is handsomely printed and ar tistically bound in paper. It contains a very excellent steel portrait of Miss Guernsey, executed by J. Lowell & Co., of Boston, also a full-page photograph of combination which shows Miss Guernsey to a good advantage. In addition to these, there are sketches of the artists, reproductions of the press notices, of which

The Guernsey-Listemann Combination appeared in Chickering hall, Boston, on Monday evening last, in a very entertaining programme. In connection with this concert, the programme announces the following which will be read with much interest by Miss Guernsey's many warm friends in Janesville:

Miss Guernsey is highly favored.

"Having received from Mrs. Taylor the exclusive right to adapt and to produce upon the dramatic stage Bayard Taylor's translation of Faust, Miss Guernsey will present, on Monday evening, among other impersonations from literature, the prison scene from this great drama, in which she will impersonate Faust, Marguerette and Mephistopheles, using the above translation.

"Should these impersonations meet with public favor, Miss Guernsey will produce the tragedy of Faust upon the dramatic stage in 1884, when she will appear as Marguerette."
